Gabriel Indombo Appointed Chief Investment Officer at Sisedi Investment Group

Sisedi Investment Group has appointed Gabriel Indombo, CFA as its new Chief Investment Officer (CIO), a strategic leadership role that will shape the company's investment direction and growth trajectory. With extensive expertise in public and private markets, fixed income, money markets and portfolio management, Indombo is tasked with driving innovative investment strategies that align with Sisedi's vision of building a truly Namibian asset management company.

In this capacity, Indombo will lead the investment division in identifying, evaluating and executing opportunities that optimise returns and create sustainable value for clients. His professional journey spans investment analysis, financial regulation, central banking and project structuring, underscoring his ability to navigate both domestic and international markets with precision.

Indombo is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA), one of the few black CFA charter holders in Namibia. He holds an Honours degree in Financial Analysis and Portfolio Management from the University of Cape Town and a Bachelor of Business Administration from the Namibia University of Science and Technology.

Hertha !Gontes, CEO and Co-Founder of Sisedi Investment Group says "as the only female-founded Namibian asset management company, Sisedi considers gender inclusivity as an essential prerequisite for optimal investment decision-making. We believe that variety fosters creativity and innovation and that job roles are unrelated to any particular gender. Men and women contribute different values and perspectives, and that diversity enhances overall performance. As part of the leadership of Sisedi, Gabriel will lead our investment strategy. His appointment reflects our dedication to cultivating a team aligned with our vision and values. We are confident that his experience and expertise will further strengthen our mission to build a truly Namibian asset management company."

This appointment reinforces Sisedi's commitment to transformation, excellence and sustainable growth, while deepening its ability to deliver innovative investment solutions for clients and stakeholders.
